Abolition of the Canteen at the Posts Is Held Responsible for the Increase in Drinking Cases in the Report Submitted by Surg. Gen. O'Reilly-Peculiar Facts Cited.

total, were about twelve times more frequent among the blacks than among the The report also notes that while were twenty-two deaths from drowning among the white troops, none of the colored soldiers died from this cause. The Surgeon General makes no comment upon these figures, and attempts no explanation of the frequency of suicide among white soldiers, or the prevalence of homicide among the blacks. Neither does the report show what percentage of the dead soldiers were of foreign birth.

The two principal causes of death were tuberculosis, 37 out of a total of 263, and gunshot wounds, 35. Of these latter 13 were suicidal, 9 homicidal, 7 accidental, 2 by police, 2 by guard, and 2 in a brawl. Drowning ranks next, with a total of 22, of which 2 cases were accidental. Surgeon General says: "The admission rate for alcoholism increased from 25.42, in 1904, to 30.22, in 1905. The other rates were about the same. Many medical of-fiders consider that the abolition of the sale of beer in post exchanges has had much to do with the increase in alcoholism and other diseases, by driving the law. - Wants Systematic Training.

Of the need of physical training for the soldier, Surgeon General O'Reilly says: "I renew my recommendations of last year in regard to the systematic physical training of all soldiers, and strongly urge up that the proper steps be taken to carry itto effect those recommendations. Commencing with a gymnastic course to deand the control of his muscles, the course should go on through outdoor athletics to military gymnastics or gymnastics ap-plied to overcoming the obstacles which the soldier is likely to meet with in war-

"Recent orders have prescribed gymnastics and outdoor athletics as part of the regular garrison training of the soldier, and while West Point furnishes each year a number of officers qualified as inthe regular garrison training of the soldier, and while West Point furnishes each year a number of officers qualified as instructors, it is necessary to provide schools in which officers derived from other sources and noncommissioned officers may qualify as instructors. It is also necessary to prescribe a regular graded course of instruction."
